LITERATURE

NOTE: THE CHINESE RHINOCEROS HORN LIBATION CUP WAS AN EARLY EXOTIC AND LUXURIOUS IMPORT TO THE WESTERN WORLD, PARTICULARLY EUROPE. IT WAS BELIEVED TO POSSESS BOTH HIGH VALUE AND PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES, MAKING IT A SOUGHT-AFTER ITEM. CONSEQUENTLY, THEY FOUND THEIR WAY INTO ROYAL COURTS ACROSS EUROPE, WHERE SKILLED SILVER AND GOLDSMITHS COMPETED TO EMBELLISH THEM WITH THEIR INDIVIDUAL 'FANTASIES'. FOR INSTANCE, THE ARTISAN CRAFTED A FINELY DETAILED SILVER-GILT SUPPORT, ENHANCING THE CUP'S AESTHETIC APPEAL. THE CUP WAS THEN PLACED IN THE COURT'S 'KUNSTKAMMER', A COLLECTION OF ARTISTIC TREASURES, WHERE IT WAS ADMIRED AND APPRECIATED FOR ITS ARTISTIC SIGNIFICANCE. HOWEVER, IT WAS ALSO OCCASIONALLY USED FOR DRINKING, AS THE RHINOCEROS HORN RENDERED ANY 'POISONOUS' LIQUID SAFE FOR THE PRINCELY PATRON TO CONSUME !
